

Tuesday, July 25, 2011
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Stan Skocki (202) 974-8133

The Normandy Group Welcomes New Staff

Washington, DC – The Normandy Group announced that it has hired Cassie Young as its Office Manager and promoted Rachel Frazier to the position of Director of Research and Operations.

Ms. Young is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the office, preparing Congressional disclosure forms, and assisting with client related matters. Ms. Young was a former intern with The Normandy Group through Miami University's illustrative Inside Washington Program. She also worked in the Department of Political Science at Miami University and interned for the Princeton Review, the Ohio Environmental Council, and a Congressional Campaign. She has a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Latin American Studies, as well as a minor in Spanish, from Miami University.

“We’re thrilled to have Ms. Young back at The Normandy Group,” said Stan Skocki, Partner at The Normandy Group. “Ms. Young’s understanding of Washington, The Normandy Group and its clients made her ideally suited for the position.”

Ms. Frazier, who was previously The Normandy Group’s Office Manager, has been promoted to the position of Director of Research and Operations. In her new role, Ms. Frazier is the lead researcher for client issues and initiatives, including grant and federal funding, as well as policy matters. Prior to joining The Normandy Group almost five years ago, she worked at the New Hampshire Institute of Politics.

The Normandy Group, LLC is a bipartisan government relations firm comprised of an experienced and dedicated team of professionals including a former Member of Congress, an Executive Branch official, and senior Congressional staff. The firm provides valuable federal government relation services to a host of diverse clients such as Fortune 500 companies, small and medium sized businesses, colleges and universities, hospitals, local governments, and not-for-profit organizations.

###